Enchanting Sunday Afternoon at the

Naples
Botanical Garden

4820 Bayshore Drive Naples, FL 34112

on

Sunday, December 11, 2011

Starting at 1pm with a lunch in the open wall tent

(a classic boxed lunch including your choice of Sandwich or Wrap, a bag of chips, freshly baked cookie & bottled water) catered by "Tastebuds" Please make your choice from the selection below.

Followed by a guided tour (1 hr.) through The Asian Garden

divided into various botanical zones: commercial crops, ornamentals, bamboos, water plants, and also into outdoor 'rooms' of cultural diversity.

There is a Northern Thailand riverside scene,
an ancient Javanese terraced sanctuary,
a Balinese temple water garden,
an East Indonesia megalithic court and a New Asian sculpture garden.

The Brazilian Garden

Experience the rich biodiversity of Brazil's flora.

The seven terrestrial ecosystems found in Brazil each have their place in the garden.

Accompanied by the Water Garden Concert Series
"Jazz in the Garden" by Steve Uscher from 2pm to 4pm

Known in the area for the great jazz Steve serves up on his nylon-stringed guitar using his classical roots to add his own style to jazz.

You may bring your own blanket and/or lawn chair and enjoy the afternoon as long as you wish, listening to the music or explore further exciting areas of the Botanical Garden.

Cost: $30
